

Information about Whistleblowing System

1. Preamble

WHC Ltd. (registered seat: 8900 Zalaegerszeg, Ady E. u. 2.; company registration number: 20-09-067382; tax number: 13773160-2-20; the "Company") operates an internal whistleblowing system in accordance with the terms of Act XXV of 2023 on Complaints, Whistleblowing and Reporting Abuses of Public Interest (the "Whistleblower Act").

The whistleblowing system operated by the Company hereinafter referred to as the "Whistleblowing System"; a complaint/notification submitted via the Whistleblowing System hereinafter referred to as the "Report"; a person who makes a Report to the Whistleblowing System hereinafter referred to as the "Whistleblower".

2. What can be reported to the Whistleblowing System?

- 2.1. Information about illegal or suspected illegal acts or omissions, or other abuse can be reported to the Whistleblowing System.
- 2.2. If the Company establishes rules of conduct for its employees that protect the public interest or overriding private interests, violations of these rules may be reported to the Whistleblowing System.

3. Who is entitled to submit a Report to the Whistleblowing System?

3.1. The following persons are entitled to submit a Report to the Whistleblowing System:

- ✓ a person employed by the Company (including, without limitation, temporary agency workers loaned by the company to client enterprises),
- ✓ former employees of the Company, and
- ✓ a person who wishes to establish an employment relationship with the Company and for whom the procedure for the establishment of such a relationship has been initiated.
- ✓ The sole trader or the individual company which/with which:
 - has a contractual relationship with the Company, or
 - the procedure to establish such a relationship has been initiated, or
 - such relationship with the Company has already ceased.
- ✓ The person holding an equity interest and the member of the administrative, management or supervisory body of the Company, including a non-executive director, who/with whom:
 - has such a legal relationship with the Company, or
 - the procedure to establish such a relationship has started, or
 - such legal relationship with the Company has ceased.
- ✓ A person under the supervision and control of a contractor, subcontractor, supplier or agent who/with whom:
 - has a contractual relationship with the Company, or
 - the procedure to establish such a relationship has been initiated, or
 - such relationship with the Company has already ceased.
- ✓ The trainee and volunteer who/with whom:
 - has such a legal relationship with the Company, or
 - the procedure to establish such a relationship has started, or
 - such legal relationship with the Company has ceased.

4. How to submit a Report?

4.1. The Company has appointed Dr. Beáta Kalocsay, a whistleblower protection lawyer ("Whistleblower Protection Lawyer") to receive and handle the Reports.

4.2. The Whistleblower Protection Lawyer will receive Reports in the following ways:

- ✓ Electronically by using the abuse reporting form ("Form") available at the "Whistleblowing" section of www.whc.hu;

Only the Whistleblower Protection Lawyer has access to the information submitted via the Form.

- ✓ By post to "Dr. Kalocsay Beáta" 9022 Győr, Bisinger sétány 2. II/2;

- ✓ After prior arrangement of an appointment, in person, at the following address: 9022 Győr, Bisinger sétány 2. II/2.

Appointments can be made by e-mail at bejelentes@kalocsaylegal.hu or by phone on Wednesdays between 10-13 at +36204101162.

5. Rules governing the reception of Reports

5.1. The Whistleblower Protection Lawyer shall take the following measures in respect of a verbal Report (made in person):

- ✓ record the personal data in a durable and retrievable form after providing information to the Reporter in accordance with the effective data protection regulations, or
- ✓ record the Report in a written form and - with the possibility to verify, correct and accept it by signature - provide a copy to the Whistleblower. The Whistleblower Protection Lawyer shall keep an accurate written record of the verbal Report.

5.2. In the case of a verbal Report, the Whistleblower Protection Lawyer must draw the Whistleblower's attention to the consequences of making a Report in bad faith, to the procedural rules for investigating the report and to the fact that his or her identity will be kept confidential at all stages of the investigation.

5.3. The Whistleblower Protection Lawyer must confirm the submission of the written Report (by post or by using the Form) to the Whistleblower within seven days of receipt of the written Report made in the Whistleblowing System and must provide the Whistleblower with general information on the procedural and data management rules under the Whistleblowing Act.

6. Forwarding the Reports to the Company

6.1. The Whistleblower Protection Lawyer will send to the Company solely an extract of the Report containing no data that would allow the identification of the Whistleblower, unless the Whistleblower has given prior written consent to the transfer of his/her personal data.

7. Investigation of the Report

7.1. The natural or legal person concerned by the Report will be informed in detail about the Report and the rules on the processing of their personal data at the start of the investigation. The person concerned by the Report may express his or her views on the Report through a legal representative and provide evidence in support of those views. Information under this point may exceptionally be provided at a later stage in duly justified cases where immediate information would threaten the investigation.

7.2. The time limit for the investigation of a Report shall not exceed 30 days from the date of receipt of the Report - this time limit may be extended in particularly justified cases, with simultaneous information to the Whistleblower. The Whistleblower will then be informed of the expected date of the investigation and the reasons for the extension. In this case, the time limit for the investigation of the Report shall not exceed three months.

- 7.3. During the investigation, the Whistleblower Protection lawyer will keep in contact with the Whistleblower and may ask the Whistleblower to supplement or clarify the Report, to clarify the facts of the case, and to provide additional information.
- 7.4. The Whistleblower Protection Lawyer shall inform the whistleblower in writing of the investigation or non-investigation of the report and the reasons for the non-investigation, the outcome of the investigation of the report, and the measure(s) taken or planned.

8. When can the investigation of a Report be waived?

8.1. The investigation of a Report may be waived in the following cases:

- ✓ the Report was made by an unidentified Whistleblower;
- ✓ the Report was not made by the person entitled to make it under section 3 above,
- ✓ a repeated Report by the same Whistleblower with the same content as the previous Report, or
- ✓ the harm to the public interest or to an overriding private interest would not be proportionate to the restriction of the rights of the person concerned resulting from the investigation of the Report.

9. Rules on bad faith reporting

9.1. If it has become obvious that the Whistleblower communicated false information in bad faith and

- ✓ there are indications that a criminal offence or infringement has been committed, personal data must be handed over to the authority or person entitled for the procedure,
- ✓ there are reasonable grounds for believing that the Whistleblower caused unlawful damage or other legal harm to another person, his or her personal data must be disclosed at the request of the body or person entitled to initiate or conduct the proceedings.
